Dear _____:

The Washington, D.C. Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society (DCNRHS), a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational organization, acknowledges the receipt of your donation of the following property as a gift to the DCNRHS (the "Gift"):

The DCNRHS agrees to provide reasonable care and administration of the Gift. No goods or services have been provided by the DCNRHS in consideration for your contribution of the Gift. By your signature to this Deed of Gift, you give, assign, and deliver all right of title and interest to the Gift to the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society. You also acknowledge that by conveying right of title and interest to the Gift, the DCNRHS shall assume absolute and unconditional ownership, including (but not limited to) the right to determine exhibition and storage duration, contract loan arrangements, deaccession from the permanent collection if accessioned, and relinquish title to the Gift. Your signature also indicates that, to the best of your knowledge, the Gift is free of all encumbrances and restrictions and has not been imported or exported to or from any country contrary to law.

Please note for your tax purposes this letter also serves as a receipt for your contribution of the Gift for the year ending December 31, _____. This letter is intended to supply you with the substantiation requirements of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to the Gift. If you have any questions, please consult your tax advisor. Please sign below and return one copy in the self-addressed stamped envelope and retain one copy for your records.

Thank you for your very kind support.

I have read and understand the terms and conditions of this unrestricted Gift:
